Notes for Thomas Sioui:

According to Leon Gerin who wrote The Huron of Lorette in the year 1900, Thomas Tsioui, a typical old Huron (about 80 years of age), living on the 1600 arpents reserve. Three of his sons still living are hunters as much as conditions permit; he himself spent the greater part of his early life in the woods, and at one time he was a noted long distance runner at the Quebec and Montreal exhibitions. He was very proud of a picture hung up in the best room of his house, a portrait of George IV., a royal gift to Michel Tsioui (my host's father), when as one of the Huron delegation he visited London in 1824.
